

Insects in the Food Chain -seminar

2nd event of the NICE network in Turku, Finland

Tuesday 29 August 2017

Mauno BioCity, Tykistökatu 6, Turku

Registration fee 65 € (incl. lunch) payable at online registration: www.utu.fi/insectsinfoodchain

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

8.30 - 9.00 Morning coffee and registration

9.00 - 12.00 Welcome and introduction

- Insect economy in the Nordics status updates of NICE network partners in Finland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway.

- Up-scaling the treatment of food waste with insects

Cecilia Lalander, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences

- Global differences in insect regulation: the background and the impacts

Anu Läbteenmäki-Uutela, University of Turku

- Sustainable food systems with circular economy

Hanna Mattila, The Finnish Innovation Fund Sitra

12.00 - 13.30 Lunch break at Mauno buffet

13.30 - 16.30 Afternoon parallel sessions

INSECTS IN FOODS

- Can I have a fly in my soup, please? Results from a cross-cultural consumer study

Terhi Pohjanheimo, University of Turku

- Insect products: design and marketing

Saara-Maria Kauppi, Norwegian University of Science and Technology

- The EU novel food legislation and insect foods

Leena Mannonen, Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry

- Insects as novel food ingredient

Anne Louise Nielsen, Danish Technology Institute

- Finnish food industry expectations for insect ingredients Jaakko Korpela, University of Turku

INSECTS IN ANIMAL FEEDS

- Insect meal in salmon feed- results of the feeding trial Susanna Airaksinen, Raisio Agro Ltd.

- Insects in fish feeding

Erik-Jan Lock, NIFES & NMBU Norway

- Mealworm meal in broiler chicken feeding - results of the feeding trial and the effects to the meat quality

Petra Tuunainen, Natural Resources Institute of Finland

- Legislation concerning insects as animal feed

Tarja Root, EVIRA Finnish Food Safety Authority

- Bio-industry side streams for insect feeding

Pertti Marnila, Natural Resources Institute of Finland

16.30 Networking with bites by the insect chef Topi Kairenius

Seminar language is English. Changes in the programme possible.

Arrival and accommodation info in Visit Turku www.visitturku.fi/en

Seminar venue www.mauno.fi or at map link.

For more info please contact otto.selenius@utu.fi or jaakko.korpela@utu.fi (+358 40 125 1512)